- Leonardo Academy recognizes Madeline Island Ferry Line for its generous donation to support the outreach and education activities of Leonardo Academy’s Sustainable Transportation Program. This funding will help educate and raise awareness on the need for sustainable transportation and reduced emissions. Leonardo Academy works proactively to achieve the sustainable transportation of persons and goods throughout the country. This program is designed to move the transportation industry and operators toward higher performance in the areas where transportation has the greatest impacts: access, climate, energy, and ecological function.

Michael Arny, President of Leonardo Academy, said, "We sincerely appreciate Madeline Island Ferry Line's generous donation to support the continued activities of our Sustainable Transportation Program. Leonardo Academy is dedicated to developing sustainability strategies for people, companies and organizations to support environmental and social equity achievements and economic success."

There are many ways you can participate in and support this program. Visit Leonardo Academy's web site to learn how: http://www.leonardoacademy.org/donate.html

About Madeline Island Ferry Line
Madeline Island Ferry Line connects Bayfield and Madeline Island with the operation of four ferries, the Motor Vessel (MV) Bayfield, MV Madeline, MV Island Queen, and MV Nichevo. Located at the gateway to the Apostle Islands on the south shore of Lake Superior in Northern Wisconsin, Madeline Island Ferry Line provides passenger, bicycle and car transportation between the picturesque towns of LaPointe and Bayfield. The 25-minute trip provides spectacular views of the lake itself and several of the 22 Apostle Islands.

Madeline Island Ferry Line has a strong commitment to natural resource protection. It is their goal to continuously improve the environmentally sustainable methods already in place, such as an active recycling program, fuel saving and streamlined maintenance practices. In addition, they are introducing new energy-saving and environmentally-healthy systems into its organization.
