Milliken & Company, a textile and chemical manufacturer headquartered in Spartanburg, South Carolina, is purchasing landfill gas from the City of LaGrange, Georgia, landfill. This landfill is adjacent to a Milliken plant and will be used by Milliken as an alternative fuel source to reduce the amount of natural gas that is used by the plant. Leonardo Academy is reviewing, calculating, and certifying the air emission reductions resulting from this alternative energy use.